

Chalet Chef Job Description

The role of Chalet Chef is truly pivotal to the Ski Talini operation. We are founded on real 'foodie' principles and as such, our guests will expect truly fabulous food at all meals, served in an informal and friendly but sumptuous environment.

Duties include and not limited to:

- Consistent delivery of the services that guests expect having booked a holiday with Ski Talini, working 6 days a week with 1 full day off.
- Provide full breakfast, afternoon tea, canapés and 4 course evening meal 6 days a week all working within Health and Safety Food Standards
- Menu plan alongside Ski Talini to work with innovative and suitable ideas, including working to satisfy guests' special requests.
- Adapt menus to satisfy any dietary requirements such as vegetarians/wheat intolerance etc
- Prepare children's evening meals (two courses) as required
- Shop weekly and to a budget, and keep accurate chalet accounts on a weekly basis, sourcing the best ingredients possible within the budget allowed
- Keep kitchen, to include all mechanical and electrical appliances clean and to a high standard
- Work with the Chalet Host sharing the cleaning of the sitting and dining areas and to be responsible for your chalet, assist in cleaning whenever needed
- Work as a team with your host to ensure all standards of service are maintained
- To shuttle guests around the Resort in company vehicle when required
- To drive company vehicles in a safe and respectable manner
- Be personable and presentable at all times
- Remove all rubbish and re-cycling twice a day after each service
- Be responsible for reporting overall maintenance within the chalet and managing the chalet inventory throughout the season, logging all breakages & informing Daisy of any discrepancies.
- Report and communicate continuously to Daisy
- Be a proactive and loyal part of the Ski Talini team

Any other duties within your capabilities that are necessary for the proper performance of your job and the requirements of the business that the Company may reasonably request you to perform.